

I have served on the Board for 15 years. I am a retired Whitesboro educator. I now work as an adjunct lecturer for SUNY Oneonta and as a Whitesboro Central School substitute. I look forward to having the library grow into a more dynamic and invaluable resource for our community.