

The Kitchen Gnome At Dunham Public Library

BOOKS, TV, AND FOOD
WHAT COULD BE BETTER!

During the past year, I have found myself for some reason reading more books, watching more television and DVDs, and cooking more at home. Why not combine these favorite past times.

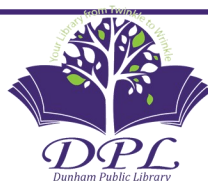

Our local libraries own many cookbooks and cookbooks that tie into television programs. There are also many fiction books that contain recipes in them.

I have decided to try some of these recipes. Check out the Dunham Public Library webpage to see how my attempts turn out.
